THE SWEET LIFE ON CORONADO ISLAND

GUIDED TOUR OF CORONADO ISLAND

A mere two-mile drive from cosmopolitan, downtown San Diego, across one of the world's most distinctive bridges, is Coronado Island -- a world away. A town rich in history, blessed with one of the finest beaches in the world and bathed in endless sunshine, Coronado is a vibrant beach community loaded with charm and some sweet surprises. The crowning glory of the island is the Hotel del Coronado, the Victorian masterpiece that is the only true beachfront hotel in all of San Diego. The Del, as the legendary seaside resort is affectionately known, is a National Historic Landmark and is as impressive now as when the seaside resort was built in 1888. When you arrive on the island, a local guide will join us as we set out to discover what the "sweet life on Coronado Island" is all about. You'll have time at the conclusion of the tour to enjoy dining at the Del, or at one of the nearby restaurants across from the hotel.
